Instructors:

Dr. Bruce Bladon, BVM&S Cert EP DESTS Dipl ECVS MRCVS

Bruce Bladon qualified as a vet from Edinburgh University in 1988. He spent one year in mixed practice and three years in equine practice, before joining Blackman & O'Gorman (as it was then) in 1992. In 1995 he left to undertake a residency training in equine surgery at the University of Bristol, and he rejoined what is now Donnington Grove Veterinary Surgery after the three year position. He has several post graduate qualifications; a Certificate of Equine Practice in 1992, Certificate of Equine Surgery in 1996, Diploma of Equine Soft Tissue Surgery in 1999 and finally Diploma of the European College of Veterinary Surgeons in 2001. He has been a RCVS registered specialist in Equine Surgery since 2000 and was awarded a Fellowship of the RCVS last year.

Bruce's passion has been equine surgery and surgical disease of the horse. He has presented the results of this work at scientific meetings throughout the UK and the world. He has been a keynote speaker at the South African and New Zealand Equine Veterinary Association conferences and at the Bain Fallon lectures in Australia. He has presented at the British Equine Veterinary Association conference and the European College of Veterinary Surgeons congress on many occasions. He has published widely as well, including in the respected peer reviewed journals Equine Veterinary Journal and Veterinary Surgery.

Dr. Med. Vet. Maria Fugazzola, Dipl. ECVS

Maria Fugazzola graduated from the Veterinary College of the University of Bologna in 2007. In 2007-2009 she did her Internship at the Veterinary College of the University of Hannover and finished her Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree. During the internship she became certified with the IVCA (International Veterinary Chiropractic Association). She then worked for a year in an equine private practice in Rome, after which she started her large animal surgery residency program at both the University of Teramo and the University of Berlin. She became a board certified large animal surgeon in the European College of Veterinary Surgeons in 2016. Since March 2016 Maria has been part of the team at the Equine Clinic Burg Mueggenhausen. Her main areas of clinical interests include orthopedic surgery, emergency surgery including colic, and lameness.

Location of the meeting:

The equine clinic Burg Mueggenhausen was founded in 1997 and has developed into one of the leading equine hospitals in Germany. The fully equipped equine hospital is integrated in the buildings of an old medieval Burg. With over 50 people the hospital offers full service on all veterinary aspects focused on horses. The colic department opened in 2011 and with three colic surgeons and supporting teams of Interns and Technicians Burg Mueggenhausen offers a 24H / 365D-Service. Equine clinic Burg Mueggenhausen is located between Cologne and Bonn near to highway A61 and can be easily reached by car, train and airplane.
